

Marko Andrejić

Location: Belgrade, Serbia
Email: marko.andrejjic@mail.ru
Website: <https://facyber.me>

Experience

Google Summer of Code 2017 – Mozilla May 2017 – July 2017
Front-end Developer Intern

Main goal of the project was to redesign Pontoon translation interface to support screenshot based translation and navigation.

Mozilla Serbia January 2014 – Present
QA Tester and Localizer

Localizing and testing Mozilla products such as Firefox, Firefox for Android, Focus for Android and other websites. Also participated in testing phones with Firefox OS and its applications, while they were active.

Education

ICT College of Vocational Studies, Belgrade 2015 – 2018 (expected)
Telecommunications

Tehnoart Beograd High School 2008 – 2012
Computer Software Engineering

Certifications

- MTCNA – MikroTik Certified Network Associate
 - Certificate: link
 - Issuer: MikroTiks SIA

Skills

- Technologies: Linux, Cisco, MikroTik
- Programming: Python, HTML, CSS
- Software Tools: Wireshark, VirtualBox, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator

Languages

- Serbian – Native proficiency
- English – Professional proficiency

Volunteering

Things achieved during the previous volunteering for Mozilla Serbia community:

- Held a lecture about data privacy and security (Faculty of Mathematics, Belgrade, April 2016)
- Interviewed for Contributor Spotlight, series of articles about chosen volunteers who contributed on different ways for both local and global Mozilla community (March 2016)
- Redesigned the website of Mozilla Srbija community